

Park Way Newsletter

5th May 2017

Its been a very short week this week with the Bank Holiday on Monday and polling day on Thursday, meaning that the children have only been in school 3 days this week!!

SATs Week

Just to remind you that Year 6 will be taking their SATs tests next week, if they wish they may come into the Gold Room from 8:30 to get settled, but we will not be providing breakfast for them. Could you please ensure that your child attends school and is on time for this week. Thank you for your co-operation.

Bug Hunt! - Wednesday 17th May 3:15

We are excited to be able to offer a great opportunity for you and your child to spend some quality time together at this free Bug Hunt workshop run by Adult Education. Collect a letter from the office or sign up with Mrs Louden.

Parentalk - Thursday 18th May 10am

This is a very informal, friendly discussion group for parents which will run on Thursday mornings for 6 weeks. Topics will include: Its not just me, It's good to talk, Boundaries and battles. If you would like to chat to other parents and share ideas, please come along! See Mrs Louden for further details or to sign up.

Volunteers needed!!

After the success of our Christmas Fair, we have had a few parents asking if we will be running a Summer Fair. Before we commit to going ahead, we need to know if there are enough volunteers that are interested and willing to help plan and support this. Please do get in touch by next Friday if you can help, as we would need to book a date soon.

Busters Book Club

Our amazing pupils have now helped to read over 4 millions minutes!

Please see link below for the certificate to congratulate them:
